God At Work

In the very center of town in the heart of Dembi Dollo where we serve, the Bethel Church stands. Many townspeople walk over 30 to 45 minutes from all over town just to worship there. Because of this, five years ago, 130 members of the Bethel Church under the leadership of Qes Woretti formed a new church in the Tulama section of the city. These members, sharing their faith in Jesus, invited their friends and neighbors to come worship. Today, this congregation has 1,300 members and carries out a vibrant ministry in their community.

The establishment and growth of new congregations like the Tulama Church is being repeated throughout Ethiopia. The people hold a deep commitment to sharing the saving gospel message. This, in part explains why the Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekene Yesus has grown from 20,000 members in the 1970's to 7 ½ million members today.

Steve's teaching at the Gidada Theological College ensures these churches will get the pastoral leadership they need. And Brenda's teaching at the Bethel Evangelical Secondary School (BESS) helps train both community and church leaders for their future.
